

00:22:28 Charles Dickson: Hi Kirby - this is Mike Rimoin with King County Metro

00:31:25 Kirby Wilhelm:
<https://transitplanning4all.org/resources/tip-sheet-planning-inclusive-meetings/>

00:46:37 Virginia Dize: Please feel free to put questions or comments in chat

00:50:46 David Bernstein: Comment and a question for Kate. First, thanks so much for your presentation. Nice to see you again! The Pathway has involved, and tomorrow we will be presenting the new version to the 3 grantees. Second, I loved that you had a statistic that 54% of the inputs on your 5 year plan were from participants. How did you consistently gather that kind of detail?

00:54:04 David Bernstein: Sneak peek at the new Pathway to Inclusion is available at <https://transitplanning4all.org/resources/pathway-to-inclusion/>

00:57:06 Kate Morley: Great point, we did the Get on Bus Tour to try go to people and not make them come to us as well.

00:58:52 Kirby Wilhelm: PACTS:
<https://transitplanning4all.org/resources/pacts-toolkit/>

00:59:00 David Bernstein: There is also the report on the post-grant experience of grantees on transitplanning4all.org.

00:59:24 Kirby Wilhelm: Hopelink:
<https://transitplanning4all.org/resources/hopelinks-inclusive-planning-toolkit/>

00:59:57 Kirby Wilhelm: Here, what David mentioned:
<https://transitplanning4all.org/resources/sustaining-inclusion-report/>

01:16:10 Crissy Ditmore: cditmore@thespartanedge.com If you would like to keep in contact

01:24:52 Lizzie Moll: Was the Citizen Advisory Connection run by volunteers or paid staff?

01:30:55 David Hoff, ICI, UMass Boston: Go Centennial Report:
<https://www.urbanismnext.org/resources/go-centennial-final-report>